A Teaching Moment

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Children have such great expectations. They often show an eagerness that marvels adults. They can't wait to get at the Christmas gifts. They race off to explore new vistas. They dive into new things with an energy that seems beyond imagining. This exuberant curiosity that characterizes childhood gets channeled over time into an exploration of one's place in the world as teenagers or young adults discover their own selves and decide what they want to do with their lives. Sometimes, the intense eagerness of childhood is restrained by the reality of the adult world in which real limitations are made manifest. Not everything is a game to explore anymore. In this weekend's Gospel, we have a story of a man who had to face his own limitations. Zacchaeus was a short guy. He couldn't see above the crowd. But he used his own ingenuity in his attempt to see Jesus. He climbed up a sycamore tree and sat in its branches because he wanted to catch a glimpse of this prophet who had come to Jericho. Jesus in turn stops at the sycamore and invites Zacchaeus to come down. Whatever limitations Zacchaeus had because of his height, it didn't seem to affect his business acumen, for the Gospel tells us that he was a wealthy man. The people of Jericho seem to think that not all of his wealth was acquired legitimately. But Zacchaeus stands his ground, promising to over-compensate anyone whom he may have harmed. As we move on in life, we may find ourselves at the point of having lost some of the enthusiasm for what got us to where we are. Our day-to-day experiences can sometimes feel like a rut that consumes our energy. The story of Zacchaeus reminds us that there can be a renewal of grace that enlivens us once again. We might consider where Jesus is walking by in our life, and if we have the eagerness to see him.

Senior Christmas Mass & Dinner

It's hard to believe but the holiday season is fast approaching. Once again we will be filling Thanksgiving Baskets for several needy families here on Aquidneck Island. All non-perishable food items can be dropped off at the front entry of the church starting next weekend and continuing until November 17th. All food collected that is left over will go to the St. Joseph Food Pantry.

Adopt a Priest

The Apostolate of Mary, Mother of Priests and the Providence Serra Club invite parishioners to adopt a priest spiritually for a year. Spiritual adoption involves praying for the adopted priest every day. We ask the adopter to contact the priest to let him know that the adopter will be praying for him every day. We also supply the priest's ordination date, so that the adopter may send a card or note of congratulations. If you are interested in more information, or would like to be assigned randomly a Providence Diocesan priest to pray for on a daily basis, please contact RI Adopt a Priest at 783-1092 or RI-adoptapriest@aol.com.

Closing Event for the Year of Faith A Eucharistic Congress

On November 15th through 16th, The Diocese of Providence will close the Year of Faith with a Eucharistic Congress entitled: The Eucharist: A Mystery to be believed, Lived, and Proclaimed. The Congress starts Friday at 7pm at St. Pius V Parish in Providence with a special evening for youth, young adult groups and families featuring praise and worship music, a keynote presentation, Taize and a Eucharistic procession. Individuals, parishes and groups are encouraged to adopt an hour of nocturnal adoration. Saturday's program begins at 7:30am with a short Eucharistic procession from St. Pius V Parish to the St. Dominic Chapel, at Providence College. Bishop Thomas J. Tobin will be the main celebrant and homilist for the noon Mass concluding the Congress.
